RANGER PROGRAMS

February

6th at 2:00 p.m.

Farmyard Children's Program

Kids can see and learn about the types of animals on an 1850s farm through activities and a walk with Ranger Ann. There will also be a 28th birthday celebration for "Go" the horse!

7th at 2:00 p.m.

"Nearest Place to Nowhere: The Life of Dr. Booker T. Washington"

A park ranger presentation provides insights to Washington's struggles and challenges as he rose "Up From Slavery" to become a leader in black education and spokesman for the economic progress of African Americans.

20th at 7:00 p.m.

Black History Month Special Program: Storytelling by Royal Shiree

Royal Shiree takes storytelling to a new level by sharing her experiences of teaching 5th grade history. With humor and dramatic flair, Royal will take the audience on a fascinating journey in time.

March

6th at 2:00 p.m.

Book Review of The Children's Civil War

Winter is a great time to enjoy reading! Pick up a copy of The Children's Civil War, by James Marten at the park's bookstore or at your local library. Share your thoughts with others in a review of this fascinating book.

13th from 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.

Women's History Month Special Program: "Vapors, Vitamins, and Vexations: Women's Health in the Mid-19th Century and Today"

Participate in Women's History Month as a lady from the past, portrayed by a living history reenactor, shares stories and insights about women's health in the mid-19th century. There will also be opportunities to learn about health issues facing women today with a participating health care representative.
